

MATHEMATICS

- 1. Apply basic math concepts, including addition, subtraction, fractions, decimals, percents, and number systems.
- 2. Demonstrate the ability to communicate in and interpret mathematical language.
- 3. Collect and analyze various forms of data and the ability to interpret and present the results through graphs, charts, and statistics, etc.
- 4. Apply various forms of measurements.
- 5. Demonstrate the ability to apply technology to solve mathematical problems.
- 6. Demonstrate the ability to apply mathematical strategies to solve real-world problems.
- 7. Pass the Minnesota Basic Skills Test in Mathematics.

